

Diplômes internationaux de langue française From the 9th to the 13th of December 2019

What are DELF and DALF?		What is the TEF? Test d'évaluation de français
They are official DIPLOMAS of general French language from the French Ministry of Education.		The TEF CANADA is an official TEST (adapted to the needs of professionals) of the Paris Chamber of Commerce.
They give proof of your competence in French.		It gives your level on a scale.
Why should I write these exams/ Test?
These exams are internationally recognized .
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - You can use them as verification of your efficiency in French on your résumé for Trinidadian or international companies and organizations. - For you, on a personal level, these exams validate your growth in French.
These are good aims that push you to derive the most benefit from your courses.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - This test is recognized by French universities and you will be asked for one of those diplomas (B2 or higher) if you want to study in France. 		This test is a test recognized by Canadian immigration .
How do they work ?
6 diplomas (A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, C2) for each progressive level exist, from basic to advanced. They correspond to the 6 steps stated in the Common Framework of References for Languages of the Council of Europe. Each exam tests the 4 main language skills: speaking, listening, reading, writing. Each diploma is independent and is valid for life .		This test evaluates the 4 main language skills: "speaking", "listening", "reading", "writing". It will give a mark on a scale from 0 to 900 which will determine your level in French and the corresponding level on the Common Framework of References for Languages (A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, C2)
For further details and to see sample papers, visit: www.ciep.fr/delfdalf		The test is valid for a year after the official validation.
